

CHRISTMAS EVE

- 1 Gifts around the Christmas tree friends
around the table,
Mother made a pudding that you won't believe
And it's all on a Christmas Eve.

- 2 Father got some mistletoe and put it in the hallway,
Brother so excited he can hardly breathe
And it's all on a Christmas Eve.

- 3 *Auntie knitted everyone a sweater,
We're not s'pposed to know,
Auntie's hoping somebody will get her
A Christmas hat and something for her cat.*

- 4 Grandma's giving everyone a headache with her snoring,
Grandpa says it's better to give than receive,

And it's all on a Christmas Eve.

DIALOGUE DURING THE INSTRUMENTAL

.....

Ch. Seller (walking on stage) Get your chesnuts here! Last few bags! Hot tasty chesnuts! (now on stage) Get your chesnuts here! One penny for the 'ole bag!

Sid (indicating his wife) Here! You can 'ave this ol' bag for a farthing!

Mabel I'll give you old bag! (they exit with Mabel hitting sid with her handbag)

Sid i was only joking! You know you're still my little flower!

Ch.Seller Get your chesnuts here! Hot, tasty chesnuts!

5 Uncle's doing magic tricks around the kitchen table,
Auntie says we shouldn't practise to deceive
And it's all on a Christmas Eve.

6 *Sister's putting up the decorations,
Candles on the tree,
How we love the Christmas celebrations,
The fire aglow and stockings in a row.*

7 Everything is ready for the day of jubilation,
Everyone's amazed at what we can achieve
And it's all on Christmas Eve,
And it's all on a Christmas Eve.
