

Fezziwig's employees

1. A kinder man you'll never see,
A boss to you, a friend to me,
The leader of a company,
A jolly laugh, a smile that's filled with glee,
We'll dance a jig at Fezziwig's shindig.
2. To mark another end of year
And fill us with the Christmas cheer,
He throws a do that we revere
To summon up the festive atmosphere,
We'll dance a jig at Fezziwig's shindig.

CHORUS It hasn't gone unnoticed that Belle and Mr Scrooge

Have been exchanging glances,

It hasn't gone unnoticed that romance can begin

At Mr Fezziwig's Christmas dances.

3. We toil and labour come what may,
Earn every penny of our pay,
At Christmas time we hear him say,
(Spoken by Fezziwig) 'Let's celebrate the glory of the day!'
We'll dance a jig at Fezziwig's shindig.
4. A better man you couldn't find,
Than Fezziwig at Christmas time,
And so we all will be inclined
To party like its 1899,
We'll dance a jig at Fezziwig's shindig.

CHORUS

5. We toil and labour come what may,
Earn every penny of our pay,
At Christmas time we hear him say,
(Spoken by Fezziwig) 'Come on everybody, dance without delay!'
We'll dance a jig at Fezziwig's shindig.

6. A better man you couldn't find
Than Fezziwig at Christmas time,
And so we will all be inclined
To party like it's 1899,
We'll dance a jig at Fezziwig's shindig.
Fezziwig's shindig.
