Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act came into force fully on January 1 2005. This Act gives any person the right to ask a school for access to information which it holds. The aim of the FOI Act is to promote a culture of openness and accountability amongst public sector bodies. The Act enables people to access information which does not fall either under the Data Protection Act of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004. (The Data Protection Act enables individuals to access information about themselves and the Environmental Information Regulations enables people to access information about the environment)

Section 1: Information Held (Scheme of Publication)

Section 2: The School's Responsibility

2.1 Schools are under a duty to provide advice and assistance to anyone requesting information and the enquirer is entitled to be told whether or not the school holds the information (except where certain exemptions apply)

2.2 Once the request for information is in writing, the school has 20 school days in which to reply

2.3 Where the information requested contains personal details of a third party, these must be removed in line with the Data Protection Act before a reply is sent

Section 3: Requests for Information

3.1 Requests for information must be made in writing enclosing a name and correspondence address. A request for information can be made by letter or e-mail, but must give a clear indication of the information which is being sought

3.2 The request for information can be made to any member of the school staff (teaching or non-teaching) and should be forwarded to the Headteacher as soon as possible

3.3 If the information requested is already held by another body, the school is within its rights to refuse the request, but will direct the enquirer to the appropriate source

Section 4: Responding to Requests

4.1 We will respond as follows:

- An acknowledgement letter /e-mail will be sent confirming whether or not the information requested is held by the school and can be disclosed (see exemptions)
- Our acknowledgement letter will indicate the fee to be charged, where applicable (postage, photocopying and staff-time)

- The twenty-day response time will operate from the point at which payment is received by the school
- The information requested will be provided in the form requested where this is “reasonably practical”
- If we refuse to provide information, reasons will be given for the refusal

4.2 Copies of the template letters are given in Appendix B

Section 5: Exemptions

5.1 There are four reasons for not responding to a request for information:

- the information is not held
- the cost threshold is reached
- the request is vexatious or repeated
- one or more exemptions apply

5.2 For the purposes of Freedom of Information, exemptions are as follows:

Absolute exemptions

- the information is accessible by other means ie it already exists as part of a published policy or is provided by another body
- personal information (this is covered by the Data Protection Act)
- environmental information (this is covered by the Environmental Information Regulations 1992)
- information provided in confidence
- information prohibited from disclosure (this is where the disclosure of information would be in breach of a court order or it would constitute a contempt of court)
- information which deals with security matters

Principal Qualified exemptions (the school will apply a public interest test in order to determine whether to confirm or deny that the information exists, or whether the information should be disclosed)

- information intended for future publication (ie it will be published at a particular point or is published annually)
- investigations and proceedings conducted by public authorities (information is exempt if it has at any time been held by the school for the purposes of criminal investigations or proceedings, such as determining whether a charged person is guilty, or investigations which may lead to a decision to institute criminal proceedings. The duty to confirm or deny does not apply to such information)
- law enforcement: information may be exempt if it is likely to prejudice:
 - the prevention and detection of crimes
 - the prosecution of offenders
 - the exercise of decisions relating to regulatory action
 - any civil proceedings brought by, or on behalf of the school
- communications with the Queen
- health and safety (where disclosure of information would or would be likely to affect the physical or mental well-being of any individual)
- legal professional privilege (any advice given by legal advisers, solicitors and barristers)
- commercial interests (information is exempt if it constitutes a trade secret or would be likely to prejudice the commercial interests of any person or body (including the school))
- threshold fee – where the estimated cost of complying with the request, including the cost of staff time to compile the information exceeds the threshold set (over £450)

Section 6: Key Personnel

- 6.1 Any member of the Browick Road Primary and Nursery School staff can accept a request for information as long as it fulfills the criteria set out in Section 3
- 6.2 The Governing Body is responsible for ensuring that a policy is in place and that its effectiveness is monitored; this includes providing a comprehensive Publication Scheme and Retention Policy
- 6.3 The School Secretary is responsible for recording the requests for information, the action taken and the responses made
- 6.4 The Headteacher has day to day responsibility for deciding whether a request is in line with the Freedom of Information Act and will delegate the collation of information appropriately
- 6.5 The governor with responsibility for the Freedom of Information Act will deal with any complaints which arise from the implementation of the policy

Section 7: Complaints

- 7.1 Any complaint will be handled initially through the school's own internal procedures. In the first instance, the complaint should be made in writing to the Headteacher
- 7.2 If the complaint cannot be resolved by the Headteacher, it can be referred to the governor with responsibility for Freedom of Information. The governor with this responsibility is the Chair of Governors. Correspondence should be sent to the school
- 7.3 Following this, if the complaint remains unresolved, there is a right of appeal to an Information Commissioner and subsequently to an Information Tribunal
