'The book made me feel...because...' Using the boat template, write a sentence about how the story made you feel. Did it make you unhappy? Grateful? Thoughtful? Why do you think this is? Once you've done this, you can colour or decorate your boat and send me a picture of it on Tapestry.	Zoom catchup! I will be doing a live story time and chat on Zoom at 1:15pm. I will send you the code and password via Tapestry the day before. History – Rosa Parks Recap the life of Rosa Parks. What do we know about her so far? She is an activist – what does that mean? Produce a fact file about Rosa Parks. Think about how you could make this interesting and colourful. You will need full sentences, capital letters and you might want to use subheadings.

Wednesday 13.1.21	Starter – Count in 2s, 5s and 10s. Challenge: can you do this backwards? Use arrays Watch the video: https://vimeo.com/490417143 Whiterose worksheet – if your child is less confident with understanding arrays do this physically using counters, lego, raisins etc. Challenge: Y2 greater depth challenge sheet	Using contracted forms: cannot > can't do not > don't will not > won't it is > it's Get them to read and write these. Do they know what the apostrophe means? (omitting letters)	Syd receives a picture at the end of the story. Who is it from? How do you know? Think about what Grandad might say to Syd in a postcard. Write one sentence that you will use in Grandad's postcard that uses an exclamation mark – remember this needs to start with 'what' or 'how'. For example: 'How lovely it is here!' or 'What beautiful weather!'	Art 1pm - StART Studio with local artist Sarah You can find a live art tutorial at 1pm on the StART Studio facebook page. Don't worry if you can't do it live, Sarah will also upload it on to her website: https://www.start-studio.co.uk/online-videos You will need: pencil, paper, scissors and pens, crayons or felt tips. Desirable: paints, paintbrush and water pot, tissue or kitchen paper and a rubber.

Recap - making doubles Watch the video: https://vimeo.com/490420115 Using the butterfly template, paint or draw a number on one side that you then copy or fold to make the double on the other side. Can you write this a number sentence? Challenge: how many doubles (and their number sentence!) can you write in 2 minutes? Can you improve this score?	Using contracted forms: Give them the words from yesterday – can they write the contracted form? cannot do not will not it is	Have you ever received a postcard? What was it about? When and why might you write a postcard? You're going to write a postcard from Grandad to Syd at the end of the story. What adventures might Grandad have had? Include your sentence from yesterday. Remember to use capital letters, full stops and your best handwriting. Challenge: write a sentence that has a question mark at the end. Decorate the other side of your postcard and, if you're feeling creative, make an envelope for it!	Nurture - Mrs Riccobena's Activity! 'To the Castle' game You might want to play this with a brother or sister. Feel free to decorate at the end! Geography- compass points Do you know the different compass points (north, south, east, west)? Why might we need to use them? Complete the worksheet to understand compass points and directions. Challenge: draw a map of Grandad's island. Can you write some instructions to find different things on the island?
Friday 15.1.21	Starter – Quick fire doubles: get your parent or carer to give you a number less than 10 and see how quickly you can double it. Make it more interesting by using a dice or pack of cards.	Using contracted forms: Can they remember what it is? Recap yesterday's work.	Creative writing You have a choice today: would you like to write a story, poem, letter or something else? It could be about our class book Grandad's Island or another topic.	P.E. Choose between: Joe Wicks, Just Dance and Cosmic Kids Yoga – we particularly enjoyed the Sonic the Hedgehog adventure!

	Recap - making doubles You can watch yesterday's video again if you think it would be helpful. Today, I would like you to complete the WhiteRose Maths worksheet. Do you recognise any timetables?
