

'Snowball' reading café: Ideas to try at home

Similar books to read...Look in the Library! Wymondham Library can order books in for you if you need them to, and it is completely free.

Similar ideas of things getting stuck or accumulating:

Stuck! - Oliver Jeffers

The Elephant and the Bad Baby – Raymond Briggs

The Enormous Pancake / Enormous Turnip / Gingerbread Man

Mr Gumpy's Outing – John Burningham

Books about Snow / Winter

Bear Snores On – Karma Wilson

Harry and the Snow King – Ian Whybrow

One Snowy Night – Nick Butterworth

Rhyme – a few of my favourites

Eric Carle – Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What do you see?

Dr Seuss – Green Eggs and Ham (etc)

Janet & Allan Ahlberg – Each Peach Pear Plum (etc)

Kes Gray - Oi! Frog! (etc)

Giles Andreae – Commotion in the ocean (etc)

Hairy Maclary (etc) – Lynley Dodd

Books by the same author (Sue Hendra)

No-Bot – The robot with no bottom

Barry the fish with fingers

Supertato!

Keith the Cat with the magic hat

Information

Usborne 'See inside' – Weather and Climate

Ladybird 'Mad about'

The Works have lots of bargain sets. Usborne do a good collection called 'Our world'

Some authors (and their books) we have enjoyed in class

This Is Not My Hat / I Want My Hat Back – Jon Klassen (there are lots of good books by this author)

Princess and the Wizard – Julia Donaldson

Burglar Bill – Allan Ahlberg

The Terrible Plop! – Ursula Dubosarsky

Colin and Lee- Carrot and Pea – Morag Hood

Hoot Owl, Master of Disguise – Sean Taylor

Snowy dough

1 cup cornflour

1 cup baby lotion or similar low-cost moisturiser

Glitter (optional)

Mix together and enjoy. If t's crumbly add more lotion, if too sticky add more cornflour

Icicle decorations

Tinfoil

glue

Glitter or blue permanent marker

String –

Cut foil into large long triangle. Fold top part of foil over the middle part of string then tie ends of string into a knot. Scrunch foil into long icicle shape then cover with glitter or colour with blue sharpie

